

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 28, 2007

RED, WHITE AND ZOO

FRESNO, Ca. – Fresno Chaffee Zoo celebrates Independence Day with Red, White and Zoo, the latest in a series of events to enrich the lives of the animals. Throughout the day on Sunday, July 1 Zoo animals will receive favorite food items prepared with a patriotic picnic theme. The animal-friendly treats are part of the Zoo's enrichment program which is designed to stimulate natural behaviors in the animals such as foraging and play.

Zoo visitors will receive a schedule of events when they enter the Zoo.

Enrichment Schedule for July 1, 2007

10:00	Australian aviary birds
10:30	Elephants
11:00	Orangutans and siamangs
11:30	Red wolves
12:00	Birds of prey
12:30	Warthogs and peccaries
1:00	Guenons and ring-tailed lemurs
1:30	Tigers, leopard and serval
2:00	Galapagos tortoises
2:30	Sea lions
3:00	Red-ruff lemurs