VOLUNTEER AT THE ZOO!

FRESNO, California – Do you like being at the Zoo? Are you a nature lover who would like to teach others about the world around us? The Fresno Chaffee Zoo is looking for volunteers, 18 years of age and older, from all walks of life and professions to help spread the Zoo's mission through education.

Fresno Chaffee Zoo Docents go through a 17 week training process, meeting once a week, every Friday at the Zoo. During the classes, Docent trainees learn about such topics as animal behavior, habitats, biology, endangered species, touring techniques and much more! Docent training is only held once a year, and the 2006 class starts Friday, September 29.

Become a part of a fantastic group of dedicated individuals. For an application and information, please call the Fresno Chaffee Zoo Education Department at (559) 498-5927.
