Fresno Chaffee Zoo to Host Sixth Annual ZooBoo Event

FRESNO, Ca. – Ghosts, goblins and ghouls are coming to the Fresno Chaffee Zoo as part of the sixth annual ZooBoo celebration to be held Saturday, October 21, 2006 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m.

ZooBoo is a merry not too scary family event featuring live entertainment, trick-or-treating, a haunted house, games and a costume parade for children. Food and beverage will be available for purchase throughout the Zoo during the event.

New this year will be a Dracula's Disco along with other entertainment including the ever-popular Oklin Bloodworth.

Children are encouraged to dress in costume. However, only adults accompanied by a child or children under 13 years of age will be permitted to wear costumes on Zoo grounds. Non-scary costumes are appropriate for this event.

Tickets are on sale now; ticket price includes Zoo admission, with a discount for Fresno Chaffee Zoo members.

Adult Member	$10.00
Child Member (2 – 11)	$ 8.00
Adult Non-Member	$12.00
Child Non-Member (2 – 11)	$10.00
Day of Event Adult Non-Member	$14.00
Day of Event Child Non-Member	$12.00

Internet and telephone orders will be accepted with MasterCard, Visa or American Express. Tickets are limited and last year's event was a sellout so get your tickets early. For more information on ZooBoo tickets contact the Fresno Chaffee Zoo at (559) 498-5921 or online at www.fresnochaffeezoo.com.

Please make special note: To prepare for this event, the Zoo will close to the public at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 21, 2006.
